Partnerships for the Future: Working Together to Get Things Done

What Will the Future of Cross-Sector Collaboration Look Like?

Join us on May 21 to explore this question, as Dan Cardinali:

- Explores data, trends, and ideas that are shaping the future of cross-sector collaboration.
- Highlights the work of nonprofit, government, philanthropic, and corporate organizations throughout the nation that are working together to promote equity.

Meet the leaders of Maine-based nonprofits, businesses, philanthropic foundations, and government agencies that are engaged in cross-sector partnerships. A panel discussion will showcase innovative, collaborations that already are changing Maine for the better.
